| PROJECT TITLE | COMBATING TRAFFICKING AND OTHER WORST FORMS OF CHILD LABOR IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE (PHASE II) |
| REGION/COUNTRY | EUROPE/Albania, Bulgaria, UN Administered Province of Kosovo, Moldova, Romania, Ukraine |
| PROJECT DURATION | September 30, 2006 – December 31, 2009 |
| FISCAL YEAR & FUNDING LEVEL | FY 2006: USD 3,500,000 |
| PROBLEM TO BE ADDRESSED | Albania, Bulgaria, UN Administered Province of Kosovo, Moldova, Romania, and Ukraine are among the countries in Central and Eastern Europe most seriously affected by the worst forms of child labor (WFCL), including the sexual and labor exploitation of children, either through a trafficking process or at the child's place of origin. The prevalence in these countries of WFCL has disastrous consequences on the safety, health, and well-being of children. |
| TARGETS | The project targets 1,350 children for withdrawal and 3,150 children for prevention from WFCL, including trafficking for labor and sexual exploitation, in selected high-risk areas. |
| PROJECT OBJECTIVES | Contribute to the reduction and elimination of trafficking and other WFCL in Albania, Bulgaria, UN Administered Province of Kosovo, Moldova, Romania, and Ukraine. Intermediate objectives include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provide direct services to withdraw or prevent child victims and children at risk of trafficking and other WFCL in key sectors (sexual exploitation, street work, illicit activities, agriculture);• Finalize, upscale, and institutionalize models of intervention tested under Phase I so that they are implemented on a countrywide basis with resources allocated by governments (in line with adopted policies), employers, and donor organizations;• Mainstream child labor issues into national policies and legislation; and• Strengthen the knowledge management component of Phase I on sub-regional and national levels. |
| SUMMARY OF ACTIVITIES | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify and provide rehabilitation and support services to children withdrawn from WFCL with the assistance of established local action committees;• Provide non-formal education and recreational |
